

Where In The Middle East Can Arab Women Vote?

©BBC, 1999

*In Israel

In the 2003 Israeli elections, Arab women helped vote eight Arab politicians and three Arab political parties into Israel's parliament. Israel's Arab citizens comprise 20% of its population. All Israelis-Christians, Muslims and Jews of all ages and genders-share the same freedoms of speech, press, religion and assembly.

Israel has the only free, open, and contested elections in the Middle East.
