

FREE TO BE

Israeli Women. Free To Be.

Free to be themselves, free to dress as they please, free to date who they want, free to drive, free to work, free to choose their own mates, free to study, free to travel abroad without the consent of a male relative, free to lead, free to write and publish, free to make reproductive choices.

Just like American women, all Israeli women—Jewish, Christian and Muslim—have all of these freedoms.